Detailed Information for Covid Related Updates:
Last update	Country	Update
22/09/2020	Canada	Items requiring a signature or customs payments are to be delivered to nearby Post offices with a card delivered to addresse's mail box for them to collect within 15 days before being returned to sender. Canada continues to experience significant postal delays.
19/11/2020	Denmark	Lockdown lifted from 23 November 2020. However, with reduced air capacity, delays still expected.
06/11/2020	Italy	Standard delivery practices, including the taking of signatures on delivery, have resumed in all areas of the country, with the recipient being required to wear face coverings. If the addressee's condition does not allow safe delivery, a notice of delivery with instructions for item collection will be placed in the mailbox.
12/11/2020	Mauritius	Despatches to Mauritius have resumed but there is reduced flight availability and possible local restrictions, delays expected.
13/10/2020	New Zealand	New Zealand has moved the Auckland region down to Alert Level 1 of the national pandemic plan, meaning that all restrictions have been lifted. However, the alternate route available to New Zealand is still in place (via Los Angeles) and there may be delays to mail deliveries.
21/10/2020	Panama	International flights returning. Postal delays are still expected.
19/11/2020	Samoa	Lockdown measures extended. Currently only one cargo flight per week and mail is being quarantined for seven days prior to being processed and delivered. Postal service delays expected
