Please note, full pallet collection service is not always available over the Christmas period. There is limited pallet collection service from the 20th to 31st December. Local collections will be made up to midday, with items collected being despatched soon after. Despatches will be made early from the 24th through to 31st December to ensure all items/pallets reach suppliers on schedule. If you require any more information during this period, please contact your Client Services Executive on +44 (0) 1727 890 620 for assistance.
